Foreword

As-salamu Alaykum!

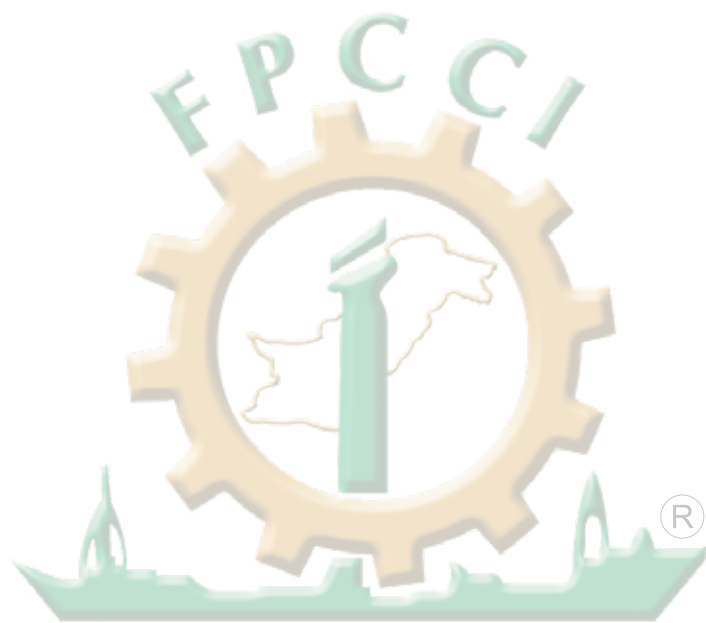

It is my great pleasure and an honor indeed to represent you at the Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FPCCI) as your Elected Vice President. I feel privileged to work under the dynamic leadership and able guidance of Mian Anjum Nisar, President FPCCI who is dedicated and sincerely trying his best to resolve the difficulties faced by the business community of our beloved country.

As you may recall, on my initiative FPCCI organized a seminar on “Impact of Corona Virus on Pakistan’s Trade on March 11, 2020. Unfortunately immediately after this seminar, there was outbreak of COVID-19 in Pakistan and the whole country had to undergo a prolonged and unprecedented lock down. The precautionary and preventive measures made it next to impossible to hold normal meetings. Resultantly, we at FPCCI had to resort to virtual meetings after easing of lock down.

With the approval of the President FPCCI, I organized a number of interactive webinars on important sectors of the economy which were widely appreciated. The details of the webinars are presented to you for your kind knowledge and information.

Participation in Seminar on Business Opportunities Under CPFTA- II

Trade Development Authority of Pakistan (TDAP) organized an awareness seminar on “Business Opportunities under CPFTA-II at Pearl Continent Hotel, Karachi. In this seminar, I discussed the following points.

- In today’s world of globalization, the importance of free trade cannot be ignored. As you are well aware, Pakistan, with great enthusiasm, laid the foundation for Phase I of FTA with China in July 2006. The Second Phase of which was supposed to commence in 2013 but due to prolonged negotiations and delays, it was concluded last year and has just commence on January 01, 2020.
- Under this agreement, Pakistan will reduce duties to zero on 75% of total tariff lines in 15 years while China will do the same in 10 years period. The greatest opportunity for Pakistan is the elimination of tariff on 313 tariff lines, covering most of our exports and it is supposed to increase significantly our exports to China.
- However, in our considered opinion, this is where the greatest challenge lies for Pakistan. If we look at Phase I of China Pakistan FTA, the balance of trade remained greatly in favor of China. China managed to export 57% of its product lines while Pakistan could take advantage of only 5% of its product lines under the Phase I.
- Therefore, our greatest concern is how Pakistan will benefit from Phase II, when we do not have excess products to export. Unfortunately, the industrial output is declining because of de-industrialization in the last few years. The Government of Pakistan needs to address serious issues like, high interest rates, frequent increases in power and gas tariff, unavailability of gas to industrial sector, abrupt changes in government policies, smuggling and refunds to exporters are some of the major impediments due to which industries find it difficult to sustain their existence.
- We need to develop a robust industrial policy that would lead to industrialization in Pakistan, encourage R&D, innovation, diversification and development of new products, improve quality standards, improve technical skills of our labor, encourage joint ventures with Chine companies and relocation of their industries to Special Economic Zones.
- Otherwise, we will not be able to receive benefits from supposed vast opportunities available to us and the fate of second phase of China Pakistan FTA will not be any different than the First phase.

The President of FPCCI in his welcome address showed his serious concerns over the consequences of COVID-19 on Pakistan's economy. He said that Pakistan has been one of the countries worst affected by COVID-19, with the economic disruption caused by the pandemic exacerbating an already existing crisis. He said that the coronavirus pandemic has become dreadful contagion across the globe and we have been passing through the second wave of coronavirus (COVID-19) which has severely affected the economy, businesses, industries and small traders. The lockdown measure sparked a wave of unemployment and created socio-economic challenges, and economic pandemonium in the country and many people lost their jobs as many companies/factories shut their production in the country owing to the coronavirus pandemic.

He appreciated the refinance scheme by State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) for businesses to support the employment of workers in the face of economic challenges posed by the spread of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19). We have provided the salaries to all FPCCI employees during the given situation of coronavirus pandemic even liabilities and financial burden is increasing.

He also emphasized that it is clear that COVID-19 proved as catastrophic for Pakistan's already ailing economy and the country's economic performance is at standstill due to the pandemic because the worst-case scenario is "high impact," and entails a 0–1.5 per cent GDP growth While formal sector workers are also at risk. It is estimated that the poverty rate will increase from around 23.4 per cent to nearly 59. Despite the prevailing situation of COVID-19, locust swarms have also harmed the agriculture sector of the country, he added.

While conducting the seminar, Sheikh Sultan Rehman, VP FPCCI showed his deepest concerns regarding COVID – 19. He said that it has proved as a catastrophic and deadly disease and engendered lives and livelihoods of millions in the country and across the world. He lauded the relief and exemption provided by the government for facilitating the businesses in Pakistan especially to the construction industry and others sectors of the economy.

He further said that coronavirus cases are increasing because people are not following the standard operational procedures (SOPs). In this regard, the government has to manage the situation efficiently and competently by implementing new economic priorities, relief on income tax to companies producing products related to life necessities, and health protection and to announce support for exporters. Along with all this, it is a major responsibility of citizens to self-quarantine and provides the government with a free hand to gear up some economic activities in a proper manner under the war of COVID-19.

Agha Fakhar Hussain – Additional Secretary, Sindh Government stated that it has been noticed that people and traders are not following the standard operational procedures (SOPs) in their business premises. He further said that the business community should create awareness and assure implementation of SOPs at District level through economic zones in order to control the spread of COVID-19. Sindh Government is ready to facilitate the business community at every stage but it is the responsibility of all to follow the SOPs so that we may be able to cope with this difficult situation of the pandemic, he added.

Sheikh Sultan Rehman, Vice President FPCCI while opening the debate said that we should watch the ongoing advisory and other guiding role of WTO, which should be under our focus in the CoVID-19 situation to remain compliant with the obligations of World Trading Rules. We should also take benefit of the relaxations as are available and agreed to under arrangement of special and emergency clauses allowed by the world trading system under WTO. Engr. M.A. Jabbar, convener FPCCI Standing Committee on WTO Affairs said that Pakistan was moving in accordance with the requirements of WTO during past and the same spirit needs to be continued. Once the situation is settled and becomes normal, the rules of world trading application will generate complaints in WTO against countries which are not following the applied rules. He said that Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Industries & Production, Ministry of Agriculture, Ministry of IT & Telecom, bodies like PSQCA and IPO have been extending knowledge based contributions for taking up policy stance by our WTO mission in Geneva. Due to weak interest and deactivation of United States in WTO affairs, the WTO system working for further agreed positions became less relevant but we should always prepare ourselves for facing the normal working system of WTO for trade conducting. He further said that WTO is presently asking and guiding member countries to help their economies through trade related supporting measures which includes alignments of fiscal, monetary, trade policy reviews as well as other regulatory functions in such a way that the concessions extended should suit the domestic trade related measures to help the economic recovery in crisis like situations being faced in CoVID-19.

He further recommended that on the entire policy making in respect of business, the private sector should be completely involved so that the practical terminology of calling government as facilitator becomes practical for private sector which has all the knowledge related to types of business and destinations of imports as well as exports.

The MOU was virtually signed by Sheikh Sultan Rehman Vice President Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and Industry and Abdurrahman KAAAN, President MUSIAD.

A trade delegation from Tanzania visited Federation House Karachi on the invitation of FPCCI. On this occasion Paul Koyi, President Tanzanian Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agruculture and Sheikh Sultan Rehman, Vice President FPCCI signed a Memorandum of Understanding to collaborate for expansion of trade between Pakistan and Tanzania.

Meeting with Delegation from Tanzania

Delegation under the leadership of Mr. Paul Koyi, President, Tanzanian Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture (TCCIA) visited Federation House Karachi. The delegates were welcomed by Sheikh Sultan Rehman, Vice President FPCCI, Mr. Khurram Ijaz, Vice President FPCCI along with prominent members of FPCCI.

Sheikh Sultan Rehman Vice President FPCCI welcomed the delegates and said that this visit is at a very important time as the global economic scenario is facing multidimensional challenges under the emerging pandemic COVID-19.

While discussing the trade relations between Pakistan and Tanzania, Sheikh Sultan Rehman said that Pakistan has enjoyed cooperative and friendly relations with Tanzania, while our trade relations are quite limited, despite the enormous potential for growth. Volume of two-way trade is US $ 155 million in which Pakistan's exports valued at US $ 69.8 million while imports from Tanzania valued US $ 85 million. He also highlighted that confinement to few products, lack of information about markets of each other countries and potential areas of cooperation and joint ventures are one of the few reasons for the low level of trade between the two countries.

He suggested that both countries should focus on forming a Joint Business Council leading to the formation of a Joint Chamber of Commerce, promoting and participating in trade fairs/exhibitions, B2B meetings and trade delegations. Furthermore, the Tanzanian Business Women Association and Pakistani business women should enhance contacts to promote business relations.

While concluding, he hoped that this visit will pave the way for greater and meaningful cooperation in bilateral trade between Pakistan and Tanzania.
